

William Webster Margaret Wilkie

All information from Neil Hendry who said:

This is the family history of my wife Fiona's Webster ancestors who lived in the Forfarshire (later called Angus) and Perthshire areas of Scotland. It also takes in the linked families of Wilkie and Orphat. I am grateful to John Webster for all the information he has supplied on various Webster branches and much more of this information has been gathered by him than it has been by me.

The history starts with William Webster who married Margaret Wilkie in 1795. The marriage was proclaimed in Mains & Strathmartine (William's parish) on 18/6/1795 and in Fowlis Easter (Margaret's parish) a day earlier.

William, a linen handloom weaver, & Margaret had the following children:

- Ann 27/8/1797 Mains & Strathmartine
- Mary 25/7/1798 Mains & Strathmartine
- William 21/6/1801 Strathmartine
- George 21/4/1803 Kirkton of Strathmartine
- John 14/6/1808 Mains & Strathmartine

Margaret died on 24/9/1829 supposedly aged 60 and William, who was living at Kirkton in 1841 died on 29/6/1842 aged 72.

The Children:

1. Ann Webster, a female servant, was living with her father and 10 year old Ann Webster at Kirkton in 1841.
2. Mary nothing further known
3. William info to be added
4. George.
