Notes: Annailzie – to alienate property. Obtemper – to fulfill an injunction etc. In most places what looks like y is a Middle English yogh, i.e. it stands for ‘th’ so yrof is thereof.

Dates - e.g. Jaivj^c and seventie ffour years. Jai (sometimes Jaj) is a Latin abbreviation for ‘The year of our Lord’, the one thousand is understood and is followed by Roman figures, in this case vij^c (could also be vii^c) which is seven followed by ^c for hundred. The remaining part is in English. This date is therefore 1774.

Double letters can stand for a capital although they do not always do so.
